IS FAILURE AN OPTION?

“Why am I a failure?” is a question we all ask at some point. Sometimes it seems like failure is the only option when we’re comparing ourselves to God’s perfection – how could we ever follow all His laws?

- Open with prayer.
- If your group is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What’s one thing you’re looking forward to in the future?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Open your Bibles and read from Hebrews 6:13-20; 7:17-8:2.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you?
- Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- When have you failed in the past? Have you ever felt like a failure? How did you carry on?
- Where in your life does trusting in God come hardest? Easiest? Why?
- What promises of God are your anchor?
- Why do you think Christ “set aside” the law? In what sense had it failed? Did the law stop being necessary?
- If we’re not constrained by the Old Testament law of God in our behavior, what are we constrained by? How does that work in practice?
- Describe the security we have in the fact that Jesus will now never die.
- If we begin living our lives more aware of the reality that we have Christ on our side, speaking to God on our behalf, how does this change the way we live?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other’s prayer requests.
