Paul's message to Colossians

Read

Remember the feeling of winning a game, finishing a puzzle, or earning a gold star at school? That feeling of excitement, accomplishment, and joy is like the church at Colossae. They were growing, learning, and spreading kindness all around them. But Paul, like a wise coach, had an important reminder for them: always remember who's on your team and Who is guiding your journey.

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.
