

There are times you know what's ahead, what you need to do, but you have no idea how you can possibly do it ... How you can stay the course. You know you could detour, take another path ... But you know the easy choice isn't the right one. What does it look like to keep taking the next step; to release what you really want now for the greater good later? Where does that choice come from?

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.
