

“There is not a square inch in the whole domain of our human existence over which Christ, who is Sovereign over all, does not cry, Mine!” (Abraham Kuyper). Does this quote sound possessive and demanding, or declaring unmatched love? Let’s explore God’s true mission for the world.

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What’s one thing you’re looking forward to in the future?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Open your Bibles and read from Matthew 28:16-20.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you?
- Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What's your understanding of God's mission to the world?
- How much of the story of God do you know at this point in your life?
- When all seemed lost, how did God act to restore His relationship with humanity?
- What does it mean for every Christ-follower to surrender their right to determine the direction of his or her life? Why is surrender so essential to a growing faith?
- How does God reveal Himself to you personally or communicate to you in unexpected or incredible ways?
- Reflect on your own life. How does your story connect with what you know of God's Great Story?
- In what ways can you fulfill the Great Commission in the context of your family? Community? Work?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.