

What if you knew the world was coming to an end? What if you knew what to expect? What would you do to prepare? What if you could know exactly what to do to be ready for what's to come? What if you could just know someone who could walk you through it, step by step?

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What's one thing you're looking forward to in the future?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Open your Bibles and read from Mark 13:1-23.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you?
- Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Do you tend to be a forgetful person? Why or why not?
- What principle do we learn in verse 11? How can you prepare for that time of persecution without planning what you will say?
- When Jesus tells His disciples to “be on guard” in verse 23 about the things they will experience, what does this “being on guard” mean?
- What does it mean that the one who endures to the end, he will be saved?
- Have you lived through something really difficult, something that required you to persevere and endure? How did you persevere to the end?
- When you’re thinking about Jesus returning to this earth someday, is this scary or exciting to you? Why?
- How can you be a person who daily remembers to live knowing that you still have great work to do on this earth as long as you’re alive?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other’s prayer requests.
