

HOLY PEOPLE

We all want to be our best self, don't we? What would it look like to live the human experience the way it's meant to be, in Christ? God wants to set us apart from the world, to redeem our past and transform us to become more and more like Jesus – the truest example of what it means to be human. Are you ready?

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What's one thing you're looking forward to in the future?

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What does it mean for us to be a “holy people”? When have you seen a follower of Jesus be not so holy?
- How do we put to death and rid ourselves of all such things that belong to our earthly nature?
- What does it look like to practically “clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience”?
- How can we “teach and admonish one another” to become a holy people?
- Do you do everything in the name of Jesus? What would change in your life if you did?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS
