

When you think about your finances, how does it make you feel? We know money matters, but it quickly becomes so much more. Can the Bible help take the fear out of finances for us, even during inflation and the threat of recession?

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What's one thing you're looking forward to in the future?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Open your Bibles and read from Mark 12:28-35.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you?
- Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- When you think about your finances, how does it make you feel?
- Why are these two commandments the greatest? How do the Ten Commandments relate to these?
- How can we use our finances to live out the greatest commandment?
- What does Jesus' response to this man teach you about Jesus? About the kingdom of God?
- In the three possibilities of relationships (with God, neighbours, and self), where are you the strongest? The weakest?
- How do you show your love for God? For your neighbour?
- Spend some time brainstorming other ways in which you can show your love for God and for your neighbour with the resources God has given you.
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.