

Life can really be an uphill trudge, can't it? Work challenges ... Health struggles ... Relational pain ... And somehow, even when our circumstances are good, and even when we align our lives with Jesus ... we struggle. We fail. We know we're not the people we want to be. How can we possibly reflect the Imago Dei when all we see in ourselves is brokenness?

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What's one thing you're looking forward to in the future?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Open your Bibles and read from Genesis 3.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you?
- Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- When was the last time something precious to you broke? What was your response?
- When was a time that you were conflicted with sin appearing to be satisfying, but knowing that it wouldn't deliver and wouldn't satisfy?
- When do you feel most "naked" before God?
- Adam and Eve responded to their sin by hiding from God and blaming others. How do you respond to your sin? Do you tend to hide or do you tend to blame?
- Can you identify areas of your life that are broken? Parts about you that you know are not who you are supposed to be. Can you name one or two areas?
- In what ways do you identify with Adam and Eve? What does this story say to you in your journey with God?
- How have you experienced Jesus heal your brokenness?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.
