IS THIS YOUR STORY?

The routine of church and – and even following Jesus – can feel flat sometimes, especially when we're constantly weighing benefits and risks in the COVID world we live in. It can feel tiresome to commit to church, and it's easy to drift. The book of Hebrews addresses this struggle and helps us refocus. Let's begin a journey through Hebrews.

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- How are you like your mother or father: artistic, mechanical, athletic, distinctive features?
- When did Jesus become more than just a name to you?
- To what is Jesus being compared to in these verses?
- What was the function of a prophet in the OT? In what ways is Jesus similar? In what ways was he different? How is Jesus superior to the prophets?
- Is it helpful to know that God has indeed spoken “many times and in various ways”? Which seems to be God’s chosen way of speaking to you?
- Of all the qualities of Jesus mentioned in verses 2-4 which one stands out you the most? What one are you beginning to appreciate more and more?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?
