

God isn't limited in how He speaks to us. We know He speaks to us through the Bible, but He also communicates through visions, sometimes music, His own audible voice, or the words of someone else ... and in the case of King Belshazzar, even mysterious writing on a wall! Let's embrace the mystery and creativity of God, inspiring our own innovation and imagination. Imagine your creativity — inspired by the Creator — infusing culture with truth and grace ...

- Open with prayer.
- If your group is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.
