

The Christian faith is an invitation to take up stride behind the One whose life is so utterly compelling that we find ourselves caught up in the journey even before we recognize its significance. And the journey begins before we even know we're on it ... Grace seeks us out even before we know we want to begin seeking it.

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What's one thing you're looking forward to in the future?
