Merry Christmas!

We're so glad you've made this service a part of your Christmas celebration. We hope you feel at home here, and that you'll plan to join us for our January teaching series, Let's Talk About Sex.

What does sexuality have to do with spirituality? Do my desires give some indication as to the meaning of life? Does any of this even matter at all? Most of us face big questions in life at some point or other. Many of us are being confronted by cultural changes in society that cause us to ask questions or think deeply about our faith. Several of us have been deeply wounded by others and don't know what to do with our hurts. So, just what does the Bible have to say about human sexuality and is any of it relevant in the 21st century?

We're inviting you into a fascinating conversation about the intersection of faith and human sexuality. During the series, we're going to explore several issues from a faith perspective:

- Desire – Why do I have these feelings?
- Design – Why did God make me this way?
- Damage – What's gone wrong?
- Destiny – What's the point anyway?

We hope that not only will you learn more about what it means to be human and have fulfilling relationships, but also that you'll discover how a Christian worldview can inform your decisions and point you towards the Creator Himself. We begin on January 7/8 and would love to have you with us. Full programming is provided for grade school children at all regular weekend services.
