Just over three years ago a friend invited me to FAC. I didn't know it then, but that first time I came to church with him changed the direction of my life. Since then I've prayed my way into a job teaching at Patrick Airlie School in Forest Lawn. Looking in the rear-view mirror I can see God's plan so clearly – not just for me, but for my school community too.

We are heading into the third year that my FAC family has partnered with my school community and it has been amazing watching the blessing that you have been! It started with you helping save the White Elephant sale that helps kids give Christmas presents to their families. Then providing jackets, boots, backpacks, homework supplies, painting classrooms – and the list goes on.

The opportunities at Patrick Airlie continue to grow and this time the call is for people. We'd love more volunteers in our breakfast and lunch programs, in classrooms and as reading buddies and field trip helpers for when parents aren't able.

We never know just how far the ripples of our actions can spread. I'm sure that friend had no idea just how many lives would be impacted when he asked me to church. How will you let God use you? – Loralee H. Martin
