

We give out of a variety of motivations. Organizations and individuals can serve people in need because it's right ... because it's expected ... because it feels good ... because it polishes our reputations. At some point, though, most of us run out of gas ... Our external motivation only takes us so far. What fuels the purest and most extravagant and unrelenting service?

- Open with prayer.
- If your group is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What's one thing you're looking forward to in the future?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Open your Bibles and read from Mark 6:30-56.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you?
- Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- How would you define compassion?
- How does one become a more compassionate person?
- Who is one of the most compassionate people you know and why do you think so?
- Has there been a time when someone has been caring and compassionate to you? What was that experience like for you?
- Are there different ways to show care and compassion to others? What would that look like?
- How has Jesus fed you when you've been spiritually hungry lately? When do you usually sense this hunger? Do you come searching for him or do you try filling it up with something else first?
- How has Jesus' words brought calmness to the storms in your life?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.