

We're not all born to do the same thing. But there's a fine line between being an individual and being an individualist ... Between bringing our unique contribution to the table, and keeping it all to ourselves. This reality reflects the way God has designed His church to function ... The Holy Spirit equips us, supernaturally, as individuals ... but then what?

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What's one thing you're looking forward to in the future?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Open your Bibles and read from 1 Corinthians 12:1-11.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you?
- Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What does it mean for you to belong to the body of Christ?
- Why did Paul write to the Corinthian church about spiritual gifts? What seemed to be their problem?
- What are the spiritual gifts listed here? Are they special talents and skills or are spiritual gifts different?
- Where do the gifts come from? Why is this fact so important?
- In what ways are these spiritual gifts different from a natural talent or ability? If you are a Christ-follower, do you have a sense of what your gift or gifts might be?
- What do you do to ensure that you are actually using your gift for the building up of the body? If you think you know your gift, what should you do?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.