

Most of us would say we hope our lives have good things to say ... That who we are, what we do, what people see in us leaves a positive mark on the world around us — on the people around us. What are some of the marks of a fruitful, winsome life — and how do we go about growing them?

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What's one thing you're looking forward to in the future?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Open your Bibles and read from Galatians 5:22-26.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you?
- Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What do you really like about yourself?
- What do you find most exciting about the Fruit of the Spirit?
- Why is it important to distinguish between fruit being the evidence of our relationship with God rather than the means of salvation?
- What fruit do you most recognize in yourself? Which fruit do you have most trouble submitting to the will of the Holy Spirit?
- What would it look like in your life to more readily 'walk' or 'keep in step' with the Spirit?
- How do we overcome the affections, and the lusts of the flesh?
- How can we be better aware of the pitfalls of conceitedness, provoking others to anger, and being envious?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.
