God wants to be found by you more than you want to find Him. That's why we can promise that if you seek Him with an open heart and an open mind, He'll make Himself known to you.

This Week's Scripture:

This is what the LORD says— he who made a way through the sea, a path through the mighty waters, who drew out the chariots and horses, the army and reinforcements together, and they lay there, never to rise again, extinguished, snuffed out like a wick: “Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past. See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland. The wild animals honor me, the jackals and the owls, because I provide water in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland, to give drink to my people, my chosen, the people I formed for myself that they may proclaim my praise.

— Isaiah 43: 16– 21

This Week's Prayer:

“God, if you are real, make yourself real to me. Awaken in me the possibility that with you I could start over again.”
