

WONDERING

« Do you believe in the Son of Man? »

What we believe is shaped by so many factors — our family of origin, life experiences, even our education and the resources available to us. But belief requires a choice, a decision — a step toward something, and away from something. So, how does that decision around what we believe impact decisions that follow? Does what we believe ultimately shape how we live?

- Open with prayer.
- If your group is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- When did you first hear about Jesus?
- Share something new or a highlight from the past week.

REVIEW

Together, open your Bibles and read from John 9:35-41.

Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon and interview. What spoke to you? Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What blinded you from knowing the truth before you decided to follow Jesus?

- After the blind man was thrown out by the Pharisees, Jesus found him. What did Jesus communicate to him in verses 35-38? What words resonates with you?
- Why do you think Jesus responded to the blind man and the Pharisees differently?
- What was the main point of Jesus' healing the blind man? Was it for the man's benefit or so that people might believe that Jesus was the Son of God?
- Does the power of God lead people to believe in Jesus today? How have you seen this played out?
- How have you learned to trust God's plan rather than your own?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?
