

WONDERING

« Don't you believe? »

Life has a way of pushing back ... Of forcing you to decide what you really believe — what you really mean when you say you believe. Because sometimes you know what you've said you believe, but then life pushes back. Things get bumpy, and believing may not seem to make sense. And you find yourself wondering ... Did I miss something? Do I believe?

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- Can you remember a time when you got lost? What happened?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Together, open your Bibles and read from John 14:1-14.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon and interview. What spoke to you? Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- Do you find it easy or difficult to trust people? Why or why not? What about trusting God?
- What comfort does Jesus offer his disciples?
- If Jesus is the Way, do you feel like you're on a bumpy road, dead end street, or on the highway? Why?
- How would you respond to someone who says, "there are many ways to God"?
- What evidence does Jesus give for his claims in verses 9-14?
- What does it mean to know the Father? Would you say that you know the Father? Explain.
- Jesus asks the question, "Don't you believe?" How would you respond?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.
