

WONDERING

« What do you want me to do for you? »

There are those things we hope for ... Wish for ... Long for ... Things we're powerless to bring about ourselves — though we'd give all we have if it would make any difference. Things we lack in ways that seem to limit us, own us, define us. Healing. Wholeness — inside or out. But what if it were possible after all? What if all we needed to do was ... ask?

- Open with prayer.
- If your groups is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- How do you normally respond when you walk past someone who is homeless?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Together, open your Bibles and read from Mark 10:46-52.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon and interview. What spoke to you? Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What do you think is the significance about the way Bartimaeus addressed Jesus?

- How does Bartimaeus show his faith?
- What can we learn from how the crowd responded to the Bartimaeus?
- If Jesus asked you, “What do you want me to do for you?” What would you say?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.