

WONDERING

« Do you love me? »

If you could turn back time ... If you could have a do-over ... If there was one split-second decision you look back on and cringe — one choice you wish you could make all over again ... What would it be? Many of us have that regret that comes to mind, that thing we wish we'd never said or done. That defining moment we're sure disqualifies us from the future as we'd like it to look. Is there any way to recover?

- Open with prayer.
- If your group is new, give everyone time to introduce themselves.

CONVERSATION STARTERS

- What's something that you like to do?
- Share something new or a highlight from this past week.

REVIEW

Together, open your Bibles and read from John 21:15-17.

- Share your favourite points from the weekend sermon. What spoke to you? Share a phrase or moment that you related to the most, or a question you may have from the weekend.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- If Jesus showed up today and asked you to go eat with him, what would he want to talk to you about?
- When have you experienced failure? How did you handle it?
- How would you have felt if Jesus asked you three times if you loved him?
- What is the closest you have come to giving up and going back to your old way of life? How did Jesus meet you in this experience and bring you back?
- Whom do you know who needs to feel forgiven by God? How can you share about God's forgiveness through Jesus with them?
- How do these verses apply to your life? What will you do about it?

PRAISE & PRAYER POINTS

Share what God is doing in your life and spend some time praying for each other's prayer requests.
