Serve Weekend

This weekend after every service there will be opportunities for you to get involved with serving! Here's what you do:

- What colour describes you?

Red (Creative-Oriented): Do you get excited about music, drama, creative writing, photography, graphic design, etc.? Do you come alive when you're using creativity?

Green (Task-Oriented): Do you naturally look for ways to help people in practical, hands-on ways? Do you get satisfaction from getting the job done? Are you a "doer"?

Blue (People-Oriented): Do you love being around others? Does the idea of teaching, hospitality, prayer, or customer service interest you?

- Fill out a "Serve Card" (located on the bistro tables on Main Steet or talk to a team member wearing a colour shirt of the ministry you would like to serve in!

We might not be able to change the world, but what we can do is make the world where we live just a little bit better.

Gerald G. Jampolsky says, "Through our willingness to help others we can learn to be happy rather than depressed."

Volunteering makes you feel you're a part of the community you live in. Volunteering to me is about giving one's time, energy, and skills freely. I am passionate about volunteering. When I lost my job over a year and a half ago due to the economy, I thought, "OK, God, what's next? Where do I even go from here?" So, I have taken the last year to just focus on what is next for me and what is God's next plan.

I have been spending most of my time giving back, by volunteering here at FAC, as well as other faith-based organizations. I have been given purpose in my life by serving others in this time of financial trouble in life, in the community, in the city, and in the church. It's been a very grounding way for me to stay firm in my belief that God has a plan and He will provide even in times when it seems all hope is lost. The connections I have made here at FAC and the networking & support have blessed me in many ways. "Each one should use whatever gift he has received to serve others, faithfully administering to God's grace in its various forms." (1 Peter 4:10)

– Leila Davey, FAC volunteer
