FINDING HOME

Bonnie: We were new to Calgary when we slid into balcony seats at First's old El-bow and Glenmore location. It was our second week attending and we had a solid game plan: take in what God has for us and slip away without anyone noticing.

Jaret: It was another typical Sunday; I woke up and got ready to go to church. I had no game plan – just an ordinary Sunday. I fully expected to meet my friends, worship, and hear the pastor's message. It was just another typical weekend service, very full of routine. Was I really thinking 20 years in the future about someone else's journey, and more importantly, about someone's life eternally? Not at all. But I learned a lesson from 20 years ago this month ...

Bonnie: We had both grown up in churches and, while there is no question we loved the Lord, people had become another issue. People just aren't Jesus and sometimes we hurt each other even when that is not our intent. At this point in our walk with the Lord, we were hurting. All we wanted was to consume God's teaching, let His Word soak into our souls ... and meet no one ...
