ANSWERED PRAYERS

God answers our prayers in many different ways. I had a recent reminder of that. My right hip was bothering me, and when I saw the surgeon in December, he said there was a 6-month wait list for surgery. I was number 89. My husband and I lead at a teen camp in Moldova every summer, and this was going to interfere with that. I described the mission trip to my doctor and he listened intently.

Our Bible study group prayed for an early surgery date, and one friend prayed specifically for a March date. I tried to get a referral to Red Deer but they were not interested – and I questioned God on that. One month later, we heard that six operating rooms in Red Deer had flooded, delaying surgeries like mine for months. On March 21, I got a call to be at the Foothills Hospital the next morning at 5:30 am; there had been a last-minute cancellation and they thought of me!

The Lord answered one prayer with a door slammed shut, and that made no sense at the time, but He specifically answered our prayers for an early date and a March one at that. Having my hip replacement early meant I was fully recovered in time for summer camp – Praise the Lord!
