DILLON'S STORY

When I was sixteen my life changed forever. I had just found Christ and my world was flipped upside down. I knew there had to be more beyond my first prayer asking Jesus to be my Lord and Saviour but I had no idea what. That's when I met Chris. He volunteered at my high school and handed out coffee every Friday morning in the café. I learned he was a Christian and I flooded him with questions about God and my newly-found faith. He welcomed it. He invited me to youth, took me for coffee and just invested in my life.

It was through my friendship with Chris that I learned about the character of Jesus Christ.

Ever since then I've had a passion for youth and discipling them in much the same way I was discipled. Over the years I've gotten to see boys grow into men of God and that is one of the greatest gifts I have ever been given.

That's why I want to be a part of The Exchange Church – a church that wants to send others to plant more churches. Because it's through going into another person's world and building relationship that we can share the gospel in a life-changing way. One day I hope to be sent by The Exchange Church to plant a new church so another community may be reached.

Right now I feel the call to go to Cranston with The Exchange Church and reach the people there. I want to move there so I can be fully a part of the community – much like Chris when he came to my school to hand out coffee.
