

Below is a collection of videos designed to be a resource for couples who want to invest in their relationship. Each study can be completed at your own pace, and in the comfort of your home. We believe couples who are intentional about learning together will reap the benefits of a healthier, stronger relationship.

First Alliance Church (FAC) has partnered with RightNow Media (RNM) to offer you more than 10,000 incredible video resources free of charge. If you have a RNM account, sign in and search for the title and author listed to be directed to the resource.
