Growing

"I first started being drawn to Christianity through a friend. She told me about Alpha so I registered and the first night's topic was 'Is there More to Life than This?' The title resonated with me as I was 68 years old, retired, volunteering, keeping busy, but kept wondering, 'Is there more to life than this?' That evening I gave my life to Jesus and experienced His wonderful joy and peace and presence in my life. Because of Alpha I now know there is so much more to life than what I had been experiencing."

up to the end of February. 361 people call the Southwest Campus home

volunteers committed to making Southwest their home campus

58

volunteered to serve at the campus for 1 year; a number of these have decided to stay as they've built community

- 19 Southwest attendees volunteered to serve in DiscoveryLand (children's ministry), greeting, technical roles, and hospitality.
- 4 Small groups are currently meeting with strong leadership people attended Alpha before the pandemic. They were transitioned to complete the course online via zoom. With the momentum from Alpha Online, we followed it up with a Philippians Bible study running until the end of June.

Giving has been tracking well, even as we moved into the pandemic. Giving continued to increase until May, with just a slight decrease to June.

We've now taken possession of ministry space in a strip mall within a block of Glenmore Christian Academy. This space will house an office for the Campus Pastor, meeting space, and storage.

"I like that this campus feels homey. It's easy to get connected. I've met lots of new people."

"As a parent, it is such a blessing to be able to bring our kids to church, leave them with trusted volunteers, and have the peace that they are having a blast and learning more about Jesus. It is such a relief to know all of this while also getting a break ourselves and having the uninterrupted time to ourselves learn about Jesus."
